THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Hyde Park, New York
June 11, 1935

My dear Mrs. Dodd:

This will acknowledge receipt of the membership card in the International Fathers' Day Association, Incorporated.

While occupying his present office the President feels that he should not accept the many tenders of membership constantly coming to him. He asks that you will be good enough to explain the situation to the members of the Association, and to express his gratitude to them.

Very sincerely yours,

MARVIN E. MCINTYRE
Assistant Secretary to the President
